Engaging The Living Word In Hebrews

Discovering Our Spiritual Family in The New Testament

KEY PASSAGES

Heb. 1.1 In the past God spoke to our forefathers through the prophets at many times and in various ways, 2 but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, and through whom he made the universe. 3 The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven. 4 So he became as much superior to the angels as the name he has inherited is superior to theirs.

Heb. 6.1 Therefore let us leave the elementary teachings about Christ and go on to maturity, not laying again the foundation of repentance from acts that lead to death, and of faith in God, 2 instruction about baptisms, the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment. 3 And God permitting, we will do so.

Heb. 6.4 It is impossible for those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, who have shared in the Holy Spirit, 5 who have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the coming age, 6 if they fall away, to be brought back to repentance, because to their loss they are crucifying the Son of God all over again and subjecting him to public disgrace.

Heb. 6.7 Land that drinks in the rain often falling on it and that produces a crop useful to those for whom it is farmed receives the blessing of God. 8 But land that produces thorns and thistles is worthless and is in danger of being cursed. In the end it will be burned.

Heb. 10.19 Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, 20 by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is, his body, 21 and since we have a great priest over the house of God, 22 let us draw near to God with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water. 23 Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. 24 And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds. 25 Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another — and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

The Lord pursues an intimate fellowship with each of His people; we can each expect the blessing of His personal counsel and the accountability of His discipline.

FOR DISCUSSION

What behavior in the Jewish-Christian congregation in Italy elicited the dire warnings in the epistle to the Hebrews?

KEY PASSAGES

Heb. 10.26 If we deliberately keep on sinning after we have received the knowledge of the truth, no sacrifice for sins is left, 27 but only a fearful expectation of judgment and of raging fire that will consume the enemies of God. 28 Anyone who rejected the law of Moses died without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses. 29 How much more severely do you think a man deserves to be punished who has trampled the Son of God under foot, who has treated as an unholy thing the blood of the covenant that sanctified him, and who has insulted the Spirit of grace? 30 For we know him who said, “It is mine to avenge; I will repay,” and again, “The Lord will judge his people.” 31 It is a dreadful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

Heb. 10.32 Remember those earlier days after you had received the light, when you stood your ground in a great contest in the face of suffering. 33 Sometimes you were publicly exposed to insult and persecution; at other times you stood side by side with those who were so treated. 34 You sympathized with those in prison and joyfully accepted the confiscation of your property, because you knew that you yourselves had better and lasting possessions.

Heb. 10.35 So do not throw away your confidence; it will be richly rewarded. 36 You need to persevere so that when you have done the will of God, you will receive what he has promised. 37 For in just a very little while, “He who is coming will come and will not delay. 38 But my righteous one will live by faith. And if he shrinks back, I will not be pleased with him.” 39 But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who believe and are saved.

Heb. 12.25 See to it that you do not refuse him who speaks. If they did not escape when they refused him who warned them on earth, how much less will we, if we turn away from him who warns us from heaven? 26 At that time his voice shook the earth, but now he has promised, “Once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heavens.” 27 The words “once more” indicate the removing of what can be shaken — that is, created things — so that what cannot be shaken may remain.

Heb. 12.28 Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us be thankful, and so worship God acceptably with reverence and awe, 29 for our “God is a consuming fire.”

FAITH In James

KEY PASSAGES

James 1.2 Consider it pure joy, my brothers, whenever you face trials of many kinds, 3 because you know that the testing of your faith develops perseverance. 4 Perseverance must finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything. 5 If any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to him. 6 But when he asks, he must believe and not doubt, because he who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind. 7 That man should not think he will receive anything from the Lord; 8 he is a double-minded man, unstable in all he does.

James 2.15 Suppose a brother or sister is without clothes and daily food. 16 If one of you says to him, “Go, I wish you well; keep warm and well fed,” but does nothing about his physical needs, what good is it? 17 In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.

James 2.18 But someone will say, “You have faith; I have deeds.”

Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by what I do. 19 You believe that there is one God. Good! Even the demons believe that — and shudder.

James 2.20 You foolish man, do you want evidence that faith without deeds is useless? 21 Was not our ancestor Abraham considered righteous for what he did when he offered his son Isaac on the altar? 22 You see that his faith and his actions were working together, and his faith was made complete by what he did. 23 And the scripture was fulfilled that says, “Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness,” and he was called God’s friend. 24 You see that a person is justified by what he does and not by faith alone.

ANCHOR TRUTHS

The purpose of all prayer is to find God's will and to make that will our prayer.

— Catherine Marshall

FOR DISCUSSION

What is fat?

KEY PASSAGES

James 2.25 In the same way, was not even Rahab the prostitute considered righteous for what she did when she gave lodging to the spies and sent them off in a different direction? 26 As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead.

James 5.5 You have lived on earth in luxury and self-indulgence. You have fattened yourselves in the day of slaughter.

James 5.13 Is any one of you in trouble? He should pray. Is anyone happy? Let him sing songs of praise. 14 Is any one of you sick? He should call the elders of the church to pray over him and anoint him with oil in the name of the Lord. 15 And the prayer offered in faith will make the sick person well; the Lord will raise him up. If he has sinned, he will be forgiven. 16 Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous man is powerful and effective.

James 5.17 Elijah was a man just like us. He prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the land for three and a half years. 18 Again he prayed, and the heavens gave rain, and the earth produced its crops.

James 5.19 My brothers, if one of you should wander from the truth and someone should bring him back, 20 remember this: Whoever turns a sinner from the error of his way will save him from death and cover over a multitude of sins.

Sojourners In 1 Peter

Discovering Our Spiritual Family in The New Testament

The corporate tourist from Japan is a model sojourner (1Pe 1.1,1; 2.11)...

He looks different than the majority of people he meets here, but is not bothered by that. Rather than try to _____, he is proud of his heritage (1Pe 4.4; 2.9). American natives notice him and are curious about him.

He knows that his country is the most beautiful of all; he does not expect to find _____ here (1Pe 1.3,4; 5.1-6).

He knows his _____ and is not surprised if he meets with racial prejudice (1Pe 4.12,13; 5.8,9). He delights in meeting fellow Japanese or expatriates who speak his language and he feels a common bond with them (1Pe 3.8; 4.8).

He talks about _____ (1Pe 3.15).

He's enjoying his trip, but would never allow pleasure to keep him from his _____ (1Pe 1.13; 4.7).

He is here to get a job done, and he doesn't waste company time. If he doesn't like our country, he consoles himself with the fact that he's only here on business: he can go home when _____ (1Pe 1.3-6).

ANCHOR TRUTHS

Our call to discipleship is not for the sake of this life only, but also for the “life to come” (1Tim 4.8).

FOR DISCUSSION

What changes would make me look more like a sojourner? What changes would make our church look more like a sojourners’ church?

THE MANNERS OF THE CHRISTIANS

For the Christians are distinguished from other men neither by country, nor language, nor the customs which they observe. For they neither inhabit cities of their own, nor employ a peculiar form of speech, nor lead a life which is marked out by any singularity. The course of conduct which they follow has not been devised by any speculation or deliberation of inquisitive men; nor do they, like some, proclaim themselves the advocates of any merely human doctrines. But, inhabiting Greek as well as barbarian cities, according as the lot of each of them has determined, and following the customs of the natives in respect to clothing, food, and the rest of their ordinary conduct, they display to us their wonderful and confessedly striking method of life. They dwell in their own countries, but simply as sojourners. As citizens, they share in all things with others, and yet endure all things as if foreigners. Every foreign land is to them as their native country, and every land of their birth as a land of strangers. They marry, as do all [others]; they beget children; but they do not destroy their offspring. They have a common table, but not a common bed. They are in the flesh, but they do not live after the flesh. They pass their days on earth, but they are citizens of heaven. They obey the prescribed laws, and at the same time surpass the laws by their lives. They love all men, and are persecuted by all. They are unknown and condemned; they are put to death, and restored to life. They are poor, yet make many rich; they are in lack of all things, and yet abound in all; they are dishonored, and yet in their very dishonor are glorified. They are evil spoken of, and yet are justified; they are reviled, and bless; they are insulted, and repay the insult with honor; they do good, yet are punished as evil-doers. When punished, they rejoice as if quickened into life; they are assailed by the Jews as foreigners, and are persecuted by the Greeks; yet those who hate them are unable to assign any reason for their hatred.

The Test

How To Pass The Test

1. Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and everyone who loves the father loves his child as well. 1John 5.1

2. We know that anyone born of God does not continue to sin; the one who was born of God keeps him safe, and the evil one cannot harm him. 1John 5.18

3. If you know that he is righteous, you know that everyone who does what is right has been born of him. 1John 2.29

To believe that Jesus is the Messiah, is to agree that He fulfills the messianic promises, to trust in Him as our atoning sacrifice and to submit to Him as Lord.

ANCHOR TRUTHS

John wrote his first epistle, not to tell people how to be saved, but to tell them how to know that they already had eternal life (1 John 5.12, 13).

FOR DISCUSSION

If God loves the world (John 3.16), why does He command us not to (1 John 2.15)?

The Test

How To Pass The Test

4. We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love our brothers. Anyone who does not love remains in death.

1John 3.14

Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God.

1John 4.7

5. ... for everyone born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world, even our faith. 1John 5.4

Do not love the world or anything in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

Revelation Identities & Syllogisms

The Revelation is a strongly Trinitarian book, dramatically setting forth the identity and essential unity of Jesus with the Almighty God. The deity of Jesus is revealed in the following equations:

“The Alpha & Omega”
=
“The First & The Last”
=
“The Beginning & The End.”

(Revelation 22.13)

Please complete the following syllogisms:

“The First & Last” = “The One Who was dead and came to life” (1.17,18; 2.8)

“The One Who was dead and came to life” = Jesus Christ

Therefore, Jesus Christ = “_____”

Jesus Christ = “The First & Last”

“The First & Last” = “The Alpha & Omega” (22.13)

Therefore, Jesus Christ = “_____”

Jesus Christ = “The Alpha & Omega”

“The Alpha & Omega” = “Lord God...Almighty” (1.8)

Therefore, Jesus Christ = “_____”

Jesus Christ = The Pierced Coming One (1.5-7)

The Pierced Coming One = YHWH, the LORD (Zech. 12.1,10)

Therefore, Jesus Christ = _____

3. What then does the altar represent?
4. What is the significance of the angel hurling altar fire down upon the earth (Rev. 8.3-5)?

- a. Proceed from _____ as Judge (Acts 17.31),
- b. Fall on those who have not availed themselves of the _____ (see 9.4,20),
- c. Occur in answer to the _____ of the saints (Luke 18.7)

4. How does the Talking Altar reveal Christ's commitment to justice, and the depth of His love for His bride (Rev. 16.7; 1John 1.9; Psalm 99.8)?
